UNDERWOOD
STANDARD
TYPEWRITER

TODAY—It is recognized as the one type of machine practical for modern business.

THE RESULT—All of the old time makers have fallen into line and have adopted this construction.

This stamp of approval from rival manufacturers has but served to strengthen public confidence in the machine that has led the way. Don't be persuaded into buying a "trailer"—look over the Underwood and you will understand why we say it is

"The Machine You Will Eventually Buy."

LADIES' COMBINATION CORSET.
COVER AND OPEN DRAWERS.

Paris Pattern No. 3245. All Seams Allowed.—The combination garment is always a favorite for summer months, and the one here presented is of unusually attractive design, the corset cover having a low "V" neck back and front, and the dart-fitted open drawers being trimmed with the very popular umbrella ruffle. Materials advised for the development of this design are long cloth, nainsook, lawn, batiste and China silk. The pattern is in 6 sizes—34 to 44 inches bust measure. For 36 bust the combination requires, as illustrated, 5 1/4 yards of flouncing 14 or more inches wide, with 1 1/4 yards of cambric 36 inches wide, or made of one material it requires 3 yards 36 inches wide.

NIGHTS OF UNREST.

No Sleep, No Rest, No Peace for the Sufferer from Kidney troubles.

No peace for the kidney sufferer—Pain and distress from morn to night.

Get up with a lame back. Twinges of backache bother you all day.

Dull aching breaks your rest at night.

Urinary disorders add to your misery.

Get at the cause—cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills will work the cure.

—They're for the kidneys only—

Have made great cures in Hickman.

J. R. Weatherly, Third & Ivy sts., Hickman, Ky., says: "For some time I was afflicted with a most annoying case of kidney complaint. The kidney secretions were far too frequent in passage and I had to get up some nights as often as seven times. In the morning I felt tired and little like doing the day's work. I tried any number of remedies and doctored, but to no avail. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice and getting a supply at Helm & Ellison's Drug Store, I began taking them. The contents of three boxes of this remedy restored my kidneys to a normal condition and improved my health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

JOSH'S CAN OPENER

INVENTION SURELY LOOKED LIKE A WINNER, BUT—

Marvelous invention Was Brought to Nought Through Devices of Naughty Burglar, While the School Teacher Wondered.

Dave, having chosen a fat cigar, being of a methodical mind, rung up five cents on the cash register and seated himself with his heels on the stove. He blew a reflective cloud of smoke, which, incidentally, all landed in Hiram James' left eye. When the laughter occasioned among the company by Hiram's back somersault had died away, Dave, being king in his own bar, began:

"Talkin' 'bout cranks and bugs, I don't know if any of youse boys knew Josh Jenks what used to live here 'way back some years. I guess you don't. Josh was the most all-fired mechanical cuss I ever sot eyes upon, an' that's sayin' no few. Always inventin' somethin', he were, except the way to make money, which was had for Josh, not to mention trade. I took a frienly interest in Josh, him bein' by way of a distant relative of mine, and oftentimes of an afternoon Josh would look in an' sit on that stool an' talk, not that his talk was easy to get at, always 'bout triangles an' dynamites, which I took was to do with 'lectricity."

"Things was goin' bad with Josh, an' I was sayin' to myself that his inventin' fever was 'bout over, when he comes in one day wavin' a great can an' plants it on the counter. I ducks under, thinkin' it was a bomb the fool feller had, but when I sees nothin' doin' I pops up, lettin' on I had been lookin' for corks. 'Lo, Josh,' says I, 'Dave,' says he, 'I've got 'em hip an' thigh now. Behold Josh Jenks' patent self-openin' can. Trademark, "Opens at the word o' command."

"It 'pears he had been readin' some kind of a kid's book—'Ravin' Nights, or suthin' 'bout a feller. Ally Habby, what found a robbers' cave chockful of gold dust an' foolry, an' made the rocks open when he up an' says the password of 'Open Seize Him,' or some such truck. Well, Josh's idea was to fix a kin' of a talkin' machine to the preserve cans, to work back'ards, ye see, so that when ye says 'Open Seize Him' into a hole, the blamed thing gits to workin' and off pops the lid all its own. He gits me to say the password, an' I'll be hanged! If the crnery ol' thing don't give a click-click an' act 'cordin' to the word. Great, it was, an' I lent Josh ten beans to git it patented, there bein' a little idee of me gittin' half profits."

Then Josh takes it roun' to all the cannin' firms, an' one on 'em was fool enough to take it on trial, the understandin' bein' that Josh was to git ten thousan' if it were any good. There was no holdin' in Josh, an' he spends all he has treatin' the boys an' talkin' 'bout what he was goin' to do with the cash.

"Soon Josh's cans were on the market, an' spite of one Dutchie who come seekin' John's blood, because he near starved to death on a Sunday owin' to him bein' unable to say 'Open Seize Him,' all went with bells. "Then the barrel bust. Some blamed burglar got into Deacon Walker's store, where he had laid in 'bout a hundred dollars' worth of canned stuff with Josh's patent, an' like a doggoned edjut he reads the label, an' to test it, says 'Open Seize Him,' an' blame if all them cans didn't begin to go off like crackers. The neighbors, hearin' the noise, gits scared, thinks some varmint is gittin' ready to blast Gunville off the map an' sallies into deacon's store. The burglar gives a yell an' gits away by a back window while the neighbors do 'bout $250 damage chasin' thro' the store."

Deacon he comes down on the can company, an' they comes down on Josh. I lent Josh a dollar, an' there must be a power of interest due, for to this here day I ain't set eyes on Josh. That were the last I heard on him, though I guess he's flyin' airships now under a nomdyplum."

"What kin' of a fixin' had Josh on the can?" said the school teacher. "Aw, go on!" said Dave. "Another of them mechanical cusses. 'Closin' time, boys."—Judge.

Economical Move.

Mr. Spriggs—My dear, it won't be necessary for you to go to the auction at Mr. Sellout's to-morrow.

Mrs. Spriggs—There may be two or three things there that I want, and besides, I enjoy going to auctions.

"There won't be any auction there."

"Why not?"

"I stopped in to-day and bought everything he had at private sale."

"Everything? Private sale? Are you crazy? What in the world did you do that for?"

"Because I didn't want you to go to-morrow and pay three or four prices for everything."—New York Weekly.

Things Seldom What They Seem.

"Where are you going with those cannon balls, Jack?"

"Dese ain't cannon balls, and I'll tell you right here, dis is de last time I ever goes to de drug store to get a prescription filled for Mr. Elephant, headache or no headache."—Judge.
